International Transfer Application Checklist

A student is classified as an international transfer student if he/she has completed any post-secondary coursework at a U.S. or non-U.S. institution and any of the following is true: English is not the applicant's first language, the applicant has completed some of his/her education outside the United States (this does not apply to exchange programs with U.S. schools), or the applicant is not a U.S. citizen (applicant is a green card holder, is currently in the U.S. on a visa, or needs a student [F1] visa). All of the following is required as part of the application process to the UGA Griffin Campus:

- You must have 60 or more transferrable credit hours.
- You must have a grade point average (GPA) of 2.8 or greater as calculated by the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.
- Check with the UGA Griffin Campus admissions counselor for a list of the entry requirements for your desired major.
- Complete the online application found at www.admissions.uga.edu/offsiteapp.html.
- Pay the $60 application fee.
- Request an official transcript from each college or university you have ever attended.
- Have all international transcripts evaluated by one of six approved evaluation services: Josef Silny, Inc., World Education Services, Inc., Education Credential Evaluators, Inc., International Education Research Foundation, Inc., American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers, or Lisano International.
- Gather proof of your English proficiency. This can be done one of four ways:
 1. An official SAT-I verbal score (430 or higher)
 2. TOEFL score (at least 213 on the computer-based exam, a 550 paper based score, an 80 on the internet based TOEFL or a band score of 7.0 or better on the IELTS) Note: Transfer students applying to the Terry College of Business need a score of 250 or higher. Remember that all score reports must be official. TOEFL scores must be less than two years old if you have not been studying at a U.S. institution since taking the exam.
 3. Official transcript that shows credit for the equivalent of English 1101 and 1102 (first-year composition) at an accredited U.S. institution with a minimum 2.5 combined GPA for the two courses.
 4. Proof of an earned bachelor's degree at an accredited U.S. institution
- Mail all required application materials to:
 - The Office of Undergraduate Admissions
 - Terrell Hall
 - The University of Georgia
 - Athens, GA 30602
- Use your login information to check the status of your application frequently at www.admissions.uga.edu. You are responsible for making sure that all transcripts are received and applied to your application.
